Cong. Church Approves Record Budget

Members of Cohasset's Second Congregational Church have approved a record budget of $55,401 for 1979 following a successful Stewardship Program carried out by the Finance Committee of the church.

In its report to church members, the Finance Committee stated that details of the expenditures outlined in the budget were acceptable and that the total was capable of being met as a result of the successful Stewardship Program which enlisted 115 pledges from 218 members, many of whom are in a two-member household. Other congregation members make their contributions through Sunday offerings.

The budget represents an increase of approximately 10 percent over the prior year's budget and is an all-time high in the history of the 157-year-old church. It includes an allocation of $3,300 for general benevolences and missionary support in addition to individual contributions which may be made for such purposes.

Members of the Finance Committee are H. William Adams, Robert C. Jordan, Jr., and Geoffrey E. Nothnagle.

Other officers of the church for the current years are: Moderator and Chairman of the Church Committee, Philip C. Shockman; Clerk, Herbert B. Marsh; Treasurer, Mrs. Howard Bates; Assistant Treasurer, Arthur L. Lehr, Jr.; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Donald Haase; Assistant Financial Secretary, Mrs. Gordon Flint; Historian, David LeDoux; and Auditor, Gordon Flint.

Newly-elected members of the various church committees and groups are: Deacons, Russell J. Sandblom, Jr., Robert Hubbell and Lawrence Shultz; Deaconesses, Mrs. Merle Jordan and Mrs. H. William Adams; Trustees, Jay R. Bonnar and Wayne Sawchuk; Christian Education Committee, Mrs. Lawrence Shultz and Ronald Harding;

Flower Committee, Mrs. Alice Badger.

Members of the Nominating Committee for next year's officers are F. Allen Weisenfluh, Mrs. Clark Young, Jr., Mrs. Arthur L. Lehr, Jr., Gordon Flint, and Mrs. Frank McCormack.
